

Fifteen million children have lost one or both parents to HIV/AIDS. By 2010, parents of 25 million children will have died.

The Population Council develops and evaluates innovative strategies to support children affected by AIDS.

© 2002 UNAIDS/ILO/S. Noorani

The Population Council conducts biomedical, public health, and social science research on global issues, including reproductive health, HIV/AIDS, and population trends.

 Population Council

RESEARCH THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

www.popcouncil.org/now